Sipping your wine during the blessed sacrament,
Healing and feeling your weakness
Denying yourselves in the palace of enticing.
The liars amusement is the attendant's abusement
Suddenly a flash from the sky, knock back,
The storms are coming closer
Throw yourselves under the tree of Eden.
The flash will pierce your blinded eyes
The sores will be exchanged to reality
As soon as it mattered out your fantasyworld.
The shackles of the world will blow away

As relity whistles it's overture
The flash will pierce your blinded eyes
The sores will be exchanged to reality
As soon as it mattered out your fantasyworld.
Sipping your wine during the blessed sacrament,
Healing and feeling your weakness
Denying yourselves in the palace of enticing.
The liars amusement is the attendant's abusement
Suddenly a flash from the sky, knock back,
The storms are coming closer
Throw yourselves under the tree of Eden.
