The first time every thing was fine
The oracle foretold me
The second time I was told about things
Happiness no more

God won't be there for you
Prayers to him will be in vain

Chorus:
Why will this happen to me?
It's all in your destiny!

What can I do to prevent this?
Nothing!

The next night I couldn't sleep cause Death was knocking on my door
A bullet through my brain will help me change my destiny

Destiny Deceiver
Destiny can't be deceived

Chorus
