Time, time
I'm caught by the past
Future, what do you come up with next?
Memories are holding me back and I can't carry on

Youth, youth
You've stolen my pride
Tomorrow, please be by my side Memories are holding me back and I can't continue after all I've been through I can't continue
after all I've been through

I'm stuck in past tense and it does not make sense
How do I cross this fence?

Youth, youth
You're still on my mind
Past days have been unkind
Tomorrow, will you ever make friends with me?
