On a mission, on a mission get out my way
I'm on a mission finally made my mind up, since my fowl decision

On a mission on a mission, get out my way
fowl decision

The hearts in the stars wont stop me,
The posers in the east wont stop me, the city in colour wont stop me now
The police man is going to stop me.

You can try reasoning
You can try bargoning,
You try everything.
But nothing is going to stop me.

On a mission on a mission, get out my way.
I'm on a mission, on a mission finally made my mind
up,
Since my fowl decision
On a mission on a mission,
Get out my way I'm on a mission finally made my mind
up,
Since my fowl decision,
On a mission on a mission, finally made my mind up.
On a mission, on a mission, get out my way on a mission,
Finally made my mind up, since my fowl decision.

On a mission, the hearts in the stars
Wont stop me and the posers in the east wont stop me
The city in colour wont stop me the police man is going to stop me and

You can try reasoning
You can try bargoning
You try everything
But nothing is going to stop me now

Eyes look straight ahead, try to contain the block,
Draw was raging through my brain,

Synopsis are being smashed apart
Like bridges destroyed in the bombing campagne.

The one who crosses me on the floor I swear,
I could start a war I swear,
Straight ahead any scum don't know,
What I got planning for them they'll know

You could try reasoning
You can try bargoning,
You try everything
Nothing is going to stop
