We danced together on the roof at the party,
5 stories removed from the trouble on the street
The sun arose revealing goose bumps on your arm
A sign that we should move together somewhere warm.

Chorus:

- we danced together.(repeat...)

We moved to the street where they tried to hold curfew
And ran among the debris as the bullets flew.
Helicopters circled overhead to get a better view
We found a doorway, fell in and I held you.

Chorus:

- we danced together... (repeat...)

Chorus extra 1:

We didn't have no where to go
Waiting for the daylight to begin
Singer, save our secular souls
How can u have hope with no God?

Extra chorus 2:

We didn't give a shit about what they would say...
And stayed up until the light turned our world/eyes
grey.
We caned our money like it was our last day
2 fingers up at those who wont miss us when we pass away
