If I had a magic wand I'd go
Up to the water nice and slow
And wave my arms around so you
Wouldn't throw it all away

If I had a magic wand I'd lie
Under the dirt, fly over the sky
And you couldn't reach me but God, how you'd try anyway

I'd laugh like the wind
I'd drink it all in
I'd always remember the smell of your skin

If I had a magic wand
If I had a crystal ball I'd see
Right through the days
That keep me from you
And I would unravel this great mystery
And find the truth

If I had a crystal ball I'd know
Which of these stains would turn to gold
Which things to shatter and which to hold Tightly to

I'd laugh like the wind
I'd drink it all in
I'd always remember the smell of your skin

If I had a magic wand
If I had a time machine I'd ride
To all the worlds that you left behind
I'd gather them up and place you inside
And we'd ascend

If I had a time machine I'd stay
Back in the rerun the very first day
With the sun and the sand and your lips on my face
Again and again

I'd laugh like the wind
I'd drink it all in
I'd always remember the smell of your skin

If I had a magic wand.
