Owls are waking in the water tower
The creatures are howling in the twilight hour
The fire is crackling and it's getting louder
I'm just waiting on the moonrise

One wing two then they're taking flight
A restless wandering feast of delight
The stars have one last moment to shine
And I'm just waiting on the moonrise

When you gonna look my way
I'm going out of my mind
Waiting on you tonight

The eastern hills have a dim white glow
There's nothing but static on the radio
I will be the last to go
I'm just waiting on the moonrise

When you gonna look my way
I'm going out of my mind
Waiting on you tonight

Some people wait for a flash of light
Some people wait for Jesus Christ
Well I guess I'm never satisfied
I'm just waiting on the moonrise

When you gonna look my way
I'm going out of my mind
Waiting on you tonight
