She brings me saltwater
She bounces off the furniture on the way to the door
She gives me saltwater
I adore her watch the way you give yourself a pain in the ass falling all over her

If I am in need of assistance please help me
If I am just fine please leave me alone
Yes I'm just fine please leave me, please leave me

She brings me saltwater
Tells me it's elixir, gives me sh*t
Tells me it'll fix you
She gives me saltwater
Can't quit the stuff she lives for free
Can you believe? What a world

If I am in need of assistance please help me
If I am just fine please leave me alone
Yes I'm just fine please leave me, please leave me

You're gonna drink that ocean dry
Acting like you own the place
