

Going Second

"Blue Eyes"

I walk around this place with blue eyes
Trying to figure out why you despise me
The look upon your face, it describes
The way inside you feel, you hide, about me

I'll reach and touch your face
Your blue eyes race from side to side
I'll grab you in and pull you close
There's nothing more that I want most
It feels so far or is it close
It's just so hard and no one knows

All I want to do, is be right there for you
Can I kiss your face
Love you, hold you tight
Is everything alright?
Kissing you goodnight, goodnight

I don't know what to say, to you
Stop and look around and what you will find
Is everything is fine, fine
All this time we kill and all good times we steal
From the way we, from the way we feel
