You see me, I'm leaving
Cause there's nothing holding
You see me, I'm walking
Cause there's not much talking
You see me, I'm leaving
Cause there's nothing holding now

You took my hand that day
And said come with me, let's run away
We'll live it up, we'll drink it down
I looked at you like you're a little bit crazy
In my arms again, you ask me about this time we spend
You rolled over and then you looked and said
Let's get a little bit crazy
Crazy, crazy, a little bit crazy
Looking back, we were a little bit crazy

You're the one for, I'm believing
Me to savor, I'm not crazy
You are perfect for me you see
Us together; yes, I'm crazy for you
