Watch what you say
Those words cold come back to haunt you
Don't mean anything
Cause you believed the liar anyway
You're drifting down another road
Chase the leaves that blow away, away, away
Such a subtle way to go
Tomorrows not today
Ooh where are you now?
Ooh where are you now?
She over me
And hope tomorrow's kinder then today
You don't have to change
He wouldn't want you any other way
You painted such a narrow road
And then you fall away, away, away
It hurts so much to see you go
But I won't make you stay-hey
Ooh where are you now?
Ooh where are you now?

Ooh where are you now?
Ooh where are you now?
Ooh where are you now?
Ooh where are you now?
