Well I've been cheated (shunned and turned away)
I stopped believing (that there would be a)
Day when you come around
Show me what I was missing
Pulled me from the lost and founds
Help me get over my bitter nights.

Another Friday (drinking at the violet hour)
No one looks my way (the loneliest one vowel)
You came around
Showed me I was missing
Pulled me from the lost and founds
Dressed me up and took me home.

No oh, Why don't we go, stealing the moonlight, oh oh,
I know, this is something good.

Well now I see it (the doubting days are gone)
You're what I needed (what I needed all along)
You came around
Showed me what I was missing
Pulled me from the lost and founds
Dressed me up and took me home.

No oh, Why don't we go, stealing the moonlight, oh oh,
I know, this is something good.

The bitter night are gone (now that you came along)
The summer nights are here (and the skies are all so clear)
The bitter nights are gone (now that you came along)

You're gone
Gone, gone, gone.

No oh, Why don't we go, stealing the moonlight, oh oh,
I know, this is something good.
