Can never buy your love, nah
You can't buy me
Never buy you love
Can't buy love
Can never buy you love, nah
Could ever buy you love

But I need new friends
I want to buy a Benz
I trip about the world
Yo, an oyster full of pearls

Rack of new clothes
Ahh-chew, Kleenex for my nose
A Rolex full of gold
Man, it makes me sold

Baby, you can't buy you love
Can't buy you love
Can't buy you happiness
Only true love can bring
Money can't buy you love
Can buy you diamond rings
But money can't buy you love

Ah, listen to me now
A burnin' desire, ah baby
You've got my heart
How much will it cost
Ooh baby, to cool it off

What do you want, all right
I'll write good checks to pay the price
My wealth I'd gladly say goodbyes
Yeah, baby

I need sneakers for my feet
Plenty of food to eat
A Rolex full of gold
Yo, anything can be sold

Money can't buy you love

Can't buy you love
Can't buy you happiness
Only true love can bring
Money can't buy you love
Can buy you diamond rings
But money can't buy you love

Damn,
What if I get you a new purse?
No
What about a new pocket book?
No
A sweater?
I thought you liked it like that?
No, I like it like it like this
Ohhh ohhh,
And it won't cost you anything

I can't satisfy
My appetite
I just want you to keep lovin' me
Hoooo, 'cause you do it right
Please hold me tight
This ride I'll dig to pay the fare
(What kind of ride?)
(Up and down, round and round)
Give extra tips, girl, I don't care
Ahhh, baby

Mo' mo' more more, money, cash checks
Toll free phone sex
Rolex full of gold

Money can't buy you love
Can't buy you love
Can't buy you happiness
Only true love can bring
Money can't buy you love
Can buy you diamond rings

Baby, money can't buy you love
Can't buy you love
Can't buy you happiness
Only true love can bring
Money can't buy you love
Can buy you diamond rings

Listen
Dick-dick-dick-diggity-dick dickee diggity dick
Diamonds, rubies, pearls
It didn't matter
As long as something is dope, yo
I'm gonna have it, I thought
Yo, so I bought, and I bought
'Til it drained me
And then all at once, yo, it came to me
This is no game about me and you
It's about a love that may be, or may not be true
'Cause what I really needed is free
And sent from up above
I guess money can't buy me love

Baby, money can't buy you love
Can't buy you love
Can't buy you happiness
Only true love can bring
Money can't buy you love
Can buy you diamond rings

Baby, money can't buy you love
Can't buy you love
Only true love can bring
Money can't buy you love
Can buy you diamond rings

Baby, money can't buy you love
Can't buy you love
Only true love can bring
Money can't buy you love
Can buy you diamond rings
