I am living in the city of sleeping hearts
Looking for someone to give my love
I am living in the city of broken dreams
I'm waiting for someone to save me

My eyes are closing
I feel like I'm frozen
Don't wanna wake up
Outside is too dark
My eyes are crying
My soul is dying
I wish I could fly
Like a butterfly

I am living in the city of sleeping hearts
Looking for someone to give my love
I am living in the city of broken dreams
I'm waiting for someone to save me

Where are you babe
Please come and save me
I need you so bad
I'm feeling so sad
I'm thinking about you
Can't live without you
Please come in my life
And teach me to fly

Baby look into my eyes
Stay with me until sunrise
Let me show you what is life
Let me teach you how to fly
