What if you let me love, you?
What if you let me love, you?
What if you could read my dirty mind?
What if I could keep you for the night?
What if we don't fight the fire?
We just let it burn, give into desire even if it's all a blur

You got me wishin' we'd stop what if'n
And just do it all
All that I'm missin', is your permission, to take it off
What if you let me love, you?
Yeah you should let me love, you
What if you let me do all the things that I want to?
Cause I got to, have you
What if you let me love?

What if we took it to the back seat?
What if I'm exactly what you need?
What if we don't care at all, let'em stare if they want to
I don't mind their eyes on us, long as your eyes are on me

You got me wishin' we'd stop what if'n
And just do it all
All that I'm missin', is your permission, to take it off
What if you let me love, you?
Yeah you should let me love, you
What if you let me do all the things that I want to?
Cause I got to, have you
What if you let me?

You're such a good girl, you got a love that's outta this world
I know you've been waiting for the right one
Well here I am, you don't have to keep it locked up
What if you let me love, you?
Yeah you should let me, love you
What if you let me do all the things that I want to?
Cause I got to, have you

What if you let me love?

What if you let me love?
What if you let me love?
What if you let me love?
What if you let me love?
