Yo, I don't know what else to say
He's been right here
But you need to open your eyes and you'll see
'Cause He's right there, listen

I was never the kind of girl that would fall for anything
When I closed my eyes to sleep, I would never dream
I was never the kind of girl that would go and look four ways
To make my life and yours have better days no ways

Everywhere I looked there was nobody
(Not even cats)
Fear took over my body
(I was so scared)

I was running from myself and nobody
(Yes, I fled)
Then I heard a voice come out of nowhere
(And it said)

I told you I'd be there for you
Was my dying proof enough for you
I showed I'd never leave you alone
But you needed what you wanted
Then you asked it was done

I told you I'd be there for you
Isn't my power strong enough for you
What must I do to show that I am true
If you look, you will find
That it's yours, that I know

I was never the kind of girl to believe what I couldn't see
For the world was mad at me and I was mad at He
I never really had it all but I wanted to be closer to God
This poor society has nothing to offer me

Everywhere I looked there was nobody
(Not even cats)
Fear took over my body

(I was so scared)

I was running from myself and nobody
(Yes, I fled)
Then I heard a voice come out of nowhere
(And it said)

I told you I'd be there for you, oh
Was my dying proof enough for you
I showed I'd never leave you alone
But you needed what you wanted
Then you asked, it was done

I told you I'd be there for you
Isn't my power strong enough for you
What must I do to show that I am true
If you look you will find
That it's yours, and I know

From my life, I'm here for you
To my death, here for you
Through my strength, I'm here for you
Through my health, yes, I'm here for you

From my heart, I'm here for you
Oh God, here for you
Through my love, yes, I'm here for you
To when it gets hard, I'm here for you

From my life, I'm here for you
To my death, here for you
Through my strength, I'm here for you
Through my health, yes, I'm here for you

From my heart, I'm here for you
Oh God, here for you
Through my love, yes, I'm here for you
To when it gets hard

I told you I'd be there for you
Was my dying proof enough for you
I showed I'd never leave you alone
But you needed what you wanted
Then you asked, it was done

I told you I'd be there for you
Isn't my power strong enough for you
What must I do to show that I am true
If you will look, you will find
That it's yours and I know

I told you I'd be there for you
Was my dying proof enough for you
I showed I'd never leave you alone
But you needed what you wanted
Then you asked, it was done

I told you I'd be there for you
Isn't my power strong enough for you
What must I do to show that I am true
If you will look, you will find
That it's yours and I know

I told you I'd be there for you
Was my dying proof enough for you
I showed I'd never leave you alone
But you needed what you wanted
Then you asked, it was done
