have mercy baby my heart is breaking you may think i'm crazy but i've had all that i can take.
and i'm ready to cry i'm ready to fall on my knees and i really don't know why i let you have the best of me.

baby, can't you see i'm falling harder into this black hole
why is this world so unforgiving?
and can't you see
my heart's breaking faster than you ever thought possible and i feel like i'm not living anymore
i think i've died for you.

please just grant me one wish don't just walk away give me one last sweet kiss and then you can go on your way but remember my words when you're alone at night yeah, remember my tears and how i was willing to fight.

into this black hole
why is this world so unforgiving?
and i feel like i'm not living
anymore
oh, i think i've died for you.

yeah, i think you took my last breath when you gave me that last kiss and i think my heart just stopped beating when you told me that you're leaving yeah, i think i've died for you i would've lied for you i was willing to fight for you but it's too late for that i've already died for you.
