So I'm losing you
I know it's goodbye
I see our good love dying
And I'll be strong
You'll think that I'm crying
But you're wrong

Baby, it's the rain
Nothing but the rain
No, no, I'm not crying
I'm smiling again
Baby, it's the rain
Nothing but the rain
It looks like I am crying
But you're not to blame
'Cause baby, it's the rain

I know life goes on
I'll try to forget
I see our good love dying
And it's so sad
But I know the tears won't keep you back

Baby, it's the rain
Nothing but the rain
No, no, I'm not crying
I'm smiling again
Baby, it's the rain
Nothing but the rain
It looks like I am crying
But you're not to blame
'Cause baby, it's the rain
