You came into my life, I just turn the page
How good I know that you would be my strength
I was really lost, but then you just appeared
The world has changed before my very eyes

Please call me now, I'm here awaiting
And let me know you are still thinking of me
I want make promises of love
I fill you up with flatten empty words
Don't you see you live inside my song?
And as I sing, I really miss you so
Ooh-oo-oo

But then you arrived, dream angel in my life
You brought me here to share this warmth with you
Life trambles on, it takes you by surprise
It offers you the magic of this life

Please call me now, I'm here awaiting
And let me know you are still thinking of me
I want make promises of love
I fill you up with flatten empty words
Don't you see you live inside my song?
And as I sing, I really miss you so

Please call me now, I'm here awaiting
And let me know you are still thinking of me
I want make promises of love
I fill you up with flatten empty words
Don't you see you live inside my song?
And as I sing, I really miss you so
Yes, as I sing, I really miss you so
Oh whoa, whoa-whoa
