I, feel the time, slowly drifting in my veins
Memories, remains.
Confined, I'm alive, somewhere by the autumn leaves Falling in between

'Cause no one's there to hold my head up high
no one's there to peace my mind

Alone lies my soul
I'm so cold, I'm afraid
To find hollow life
Sleepless nights, empty days

Opaque fading eyes stumble in my face
Through the crowd I forsake
Demised I'm aside weaked by the lonely haze
Of no point, no aim

'Cause no one's there to hold my head up high
no one's there to peace my mind

Alone, I'm afraid
To find hollow life
Sleepless nights, empty days

AloneÃ¢â€!Ã¢â€!
