Choosing a tape, I settle down the better mood
Ignition is on ready for my inquietude
I step for the road with no stop inside my head
Leaving behind four walls that almost drove me mad

So taking the wheel
I reveal all my bounds
I shun I evade
I get lost I get found
Cruising I flee
Getting the
Most profound
I drift and I fade
Through the road I'm around

Driving around I find myself and all my doubts
The love and the hate the little things that life's about
So facing the movement, I can keep my mind away
Enough to believe that I can sort things out and be okay
So taking the wheel
I reveal all my bounds
I shun I evade
I get lost I get found
Cruising I flee
Getting the
Most profound
I drift and I fade
Through the road I'm around
So taking the wheel
I reveal I get found
I shun I evade
Through the road I'm around
