Diving in and diving out
Between the past
I lose myself to find
Somewhere a path

Giving the best of me
I fall so blind
Living my memories
On present hides

Grows the pale of sin
And I deny, to seal what is so real
Everyday I die by my hands
To feel...

Sane
Sane
Sane
Insane

Dying in and dying out
I'm so obsessed
Wasting my dignity
On something fast

Fading the best of me
I can't resign
Living my memories
On present times

Grows the pale of sin
And I deny to seal what is so real
Everyday I die by my hands
To feel...

Sane
Sane
Sane
Insane
