"Newborn"

Don't try to shape yourself
On something you're not
Don't try to break your point of view
There is a right spot

Don't try to chain your attitude
A reason why
You have to fail and fall
Before you can fly

Feel your bones crushing in
Feel your heart beating skin
In thee, you feel the blame
The thorn of mistake

(But then you'll hill)

Fell like a Newborn
Fell like a Newborn

Every time you fall

Take your steps embrace this life
Throughout your touch
You can't predict it all
That's overmuch!!!

So realize what's high above
Our dignity
A starting point of change
A new degree

Feel your bones crushing in
Feel your heart beating skin
In thee, you feel the blame
The thorn of mistake

(But then you'll hill)

Fell like a Newborn
Fell like a Newborn

Every time you fall
