the lights are dimmed
everyone's so, so quiet
hoping for a sign
speak to me
speak to me
please tell me why
why did you have to leave me?
wind blowing, table shatters now we are in darkness
i think i can hear you calling
speak to me
speak to me
please tell me why
speak to me
don't go yet, you've not answered all i want to know
don't go yet, you've not answered
all i want to know
speak
