(Graeme Edge) Blasting, billowing, bursting forth with the Power of ten billion butterfly sneezes Man, with his flaming fire, has conquered the wayward breezes Climbing to tranquility far above the cloud Conceiving the heaven clear of misty shroud CHORUS Higher and higher, now we've learned to play with fire We go higher and higher and higher Vast vision must improve our sight and perhaps at last we'll see An end to our home's endless blight and the beginning of the Free Climb to tranquility, finding its real worth Conceiving the heavens flourishing on earth CHORUS -----
