Lady Liberty, come down and bleed to me
I want nothing to do with your crazy world
Broken promises, those poor noises
Are bringin' it by the time for all the famine and the law
From the contras to the upstarts to shouted
Sandanistas

Lady Liberty, come down and bleed to me
You had me to believe that the streets are paved in gold
Storming ? west, then the cold hits
Then I come to find that the streets aren't paved at all
From the contras to the upstarts to shouted
Sandanistas
From the contras to the upstarts to shouted
Sandanistas
From the Kremlin to Afeghanistan to the forgotten ones
She offers it confusion to distraught refugees
In the fields of poison ivy, through the famine and disease
You bled my loyalty

Lady Liberty, come down and bleed to me
You had me to believe that the streets are paved in
gold
All you tell me not to worry About the short comings of lives and the high cost of living
From the contras to the upstarts to shouted
Sandanistas
From the contras to the upstarts to shouted
Sandanistas

Shouted Sandinista!!!
