out in the open they aint gonna hide police state upon us prepare to collide theyre gonna keep you down step on your neck cant move no more the weapon of their choosing is censorship and war and i can see the line up now everyone is just partisan you see one side claims victory but its just a zero sum liberty and freedom in quotations spray painted on the wall verbalized explosion we will come back some day if your ideas are suspect now your in contempt report to the committee no one is exempt and the zealots and crusaders they cant justify with threats and intimidation designed to terrify
