Sets out to murder

False appearance is everything to him

Is he good today, or is he evil

In a violent crazy spewing words of madness

It can go either way you never know

Conditioned to deceived and that's how he likes it

With all the guns going off who can say no to the guy

Who watch out, who's fucking nuts

'Cause Loki's playing tricks again

Loki's playing tricks again

Loki's playing tricks again

Rancid Loki
