You said protect me
And you left me
On Christmas Eve
I feel so empty
Don't call me
Don't stall me
Christmas Eve well she got up and left me

You broke my heart girl
You made me cry
We fell apart girl
I don't know why
I buy you a house
And a diamond ring
I buy you pretty much everything

You said protect me
And you left me
On Christmas Eve
I feel so empty
Don't call me
Don't stall me
Christmas Eve well she got up and left me

Punk rocker against a rich girl
She chased me then yea around the world
What you can't have you cannot kiss
You're gonna find out what ya missed

You said protect me
And you left me
On Christmas Eve
I feel so empty
Don't call me
Don't stall me
Christmas Eve well she got up and left me

You broke my heart girl
You made me cry
We fell apart girl
I don't know why
I buy you a house and a diamond ring

I buy you pretty much everything!

You said protect me
And you left me
On Christmas Eve
I feel so empty
Don't call me
Don't stall me
Christmas Eve well she got up and left me

Christmas Eve
She got up and left me
Now I'm all alone
