Sitting by the harbor with a cup of tea
Oh so very English but that isn't me
Kicking out the larger and Duty-Free
It's akin to a fight with Muhammad Ali

Skinning marijuana or dropping LSD
Don't help my paranoia or anxiety
I'm searching for my Karma or Flue-des-lys
Anything to help me pass my psyche-MOT

Don't ignore me, don't walk past
Please put a copper in my broken glass

Slinging mud & slander on the good old QT
Doesn't stop the pain or the shame it causes me
The bitching & the laughter, rip the shit out of me
Just cause I don't here you, doesn't mean I cannot see

Don't ignore me, don't walk past
Please put a copper in my broken glass
