many aeons ago
he was banished... with shame he slept so long that he forgot... his name now time has come for the retribution and now he's back he lives again
so many years spent in the dark... nowhere
so many years
dreamin' of sweet... vengeance Rit.
and now he's back he lives again he's back for you set up some defense and start to pray every god don't try to talk or to flee he will find you everywhere now he's back he lives only for bringing destruction now he's back you don't know that he's looking for you so many times
he longed for... this day
so many times
he foretasted... your cries Rit.
