I am unbeaten
wounds that do not heal screams nobody hears a heart that cannot beat am I unbeaten?
I need to unfold
the reach of my bounds
harnessed anymore
Rit.
I know shadows that bite
(I know shadows that bite)
I've seen fires in the sky
(I've seen fires in the sky)
I feel dead men revive (in me)
I've seen heroes in tears
(I've seen heroes in tears)
and thieves hailed with cheers
(and thieves hailed with cheers)
but they cannot get rid (of me)
I'm not bound to pay that toll
I am not resigned to be one of the crowd to fade unknown
and unfound
to succumb to this huge and painfull load and I won't be a background sound I won't fall
and my name will be screamed loud for long
I will be a deep scar in history
Rit.
but they cannot beat me and so I'll face their reprisal
