She was the best thing
The best thing he ever had
She was the best thing
He switched from rum to whisky
She was the only decent thing
In a good for nothing town
She was the prettiest girl
In an ugly town
He must sorry i know
He hates sin
He switched from rum to whisky
{bang bang}
Bang bang he put her down
{bang bang}
Bang bang he put her down
Down
Do you remember the beer on her breath?
Do you remember your hands on the hem of her dress?
Do you remember crying with the skirt she wore tucked under your Head?
He switched from rum to whisky
{bang bang}
Bang bang he put her down
{bang bang}
Bang bang he put her down
{bang bang}
He switched from rum to whisky
Didn't keep him from finding someone new
Bang bang he took her down too
She was the best thing
In this god forsaken town
I'm sure that he longs to be free of sin
He will he prays in secret to the ones he loved so well
