I know a girl she's so crazy, she can do almost everything she wants. She never feels ashamed, she talks open about things i keep for myself. I know a girl she amaze me, she reminds me of someone that i've seen. She's got a special way to move her arms and legs she can take my sense away. There's so many things i'm unsure of, it seems like i can't find the truth. Maybe i haven't looked well enough but i doubt it even exist. Take my mind. Seduce me for a while. Don't take one piece at the time. Take it all and waste it now. Many memories goes by like a flash before my eyes. I know a girl she's so crazy she talks but she got nothing to say. Because shes so busy with all the things around her she wouldn't notice if i walked away. I know a girl she amaze me she can make me laugh she make me feel like im fourteen and the first wet dream that i've had.
