This one is for the workers unite
This one is for the people that believe in a fight
This one is for the everlasting dream to be free
This one, this one is for liberty

This is a loaded gun mission
With words of the revelation
A mental revolution non-violently
This one, this one is for anarchy

There's no strength
Where there's no struggle
Without struggle
There is no strength

This is the result of frustration
Total boredom but we still got motivation
It's not much but it's a start
This one, this one comes from our heart

This is the call of the useless generation
With the fall of the great nations
The flame of freedom burns in our eyes
We had enough of fucking lies

There's no strength where's there's no struggle
Without struggle there's no strength
There's a light at the end of the tunnel
There is still time for the winds to change

Out of nothing comes nothing
Out of nothing comes nothing
Out of nothing comes nothing

Nothing, nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing, nothing
Out of nothing comes nothing

Nothing, I said nothing, I said nothing
Out of nothing comes nothing
Comes nothing
