Chorus:

You have unbroken my heart.

You have saved me.

Never again torn apart, you have saved me. 2x Lost
again, this wasted land,

the only sign of existing life:

the sweat upon my sun-scorched hands.

Devour my sin, engorge on this hatred,

this guilt that lives within,

make me whole again. Chorus:

You have unbroken my heart.

You have saved me.

Never again torn apart, you have saved me. 2x

Condemnation has thrown its punches,

but I wont let it win

Dodging all the accusations.

What's that world? come again?

I am a freed being, unchained, unbound.

His word continues faithful rejuvenation is found. You wonder, wonder?

when does it all come together

when does it all come back down.

Wonder, wonder

Fall! fall apart

Come back down Take me away,

far away from here.

I want to be where you are, where you are Take me
away,

far away from here.

I want to be where you are,

You are here, you are near.

You are, you are here Chorus:

You have unbroken my heart.

You have saved me.

Never again torn apart, you have saved me. 2x
