Fahrenheit 103
Numbers fade on the LCD
Sweat moves in some kind of parade
Off my face into my lemonade
I'm goin' down to the river
I'm gonna shake and shiver
I'm gonna roll in the water
I'm gonna take your daughter
Ooh it makes me wonder
About this love made in the summer
And if it's ever gonna last
Once the heat wave is past
So let's take our time
Your body finding mine
Take a chance and jump right in
See if we both can swim
Tire swing in a tall oak tree
Sweet honey from a honey bee
Muddy shoes and a game of spades
Some have left some have stayed
Poker face smokin' cloves
One more hand and you lose your clothes
Lose your clothes take my hand
More heat than a man can stand
