Girl, put on that perfume that I bought you
And wear that sexy dress you never wear
I walk up and ask you for your number
You can act like you don't care

I'll tip the band that play our favorite love song
And hold you close for a dance or two
Baby, let's create that perfect moment
Turn it on like we use to

Let's pretend we're strangers for the night
Take my hand and let's relight the fire in our eyes
Baby, don't hold nothin' back when we turn out the light
Let's pretend we're strangers for the night

I close the tab and leave you by the back door
You can tell your girlfriends that you're headed home
I'll tell the boys that I've had one too many
And I've got to go

Let's pretend we're strangers for the night
Take my hand and let's relight the fire in our eyes
Baby, don't hold nothin' back when we turn out the light
Let's pretend we're strangers for the night

Let's turn the pages back for when we loved like that Oh, we got to get that magic back

Let's pretend we're strangers for the night
Take my hand and let's relight the fire in our eyes
Baby, don't hold nothin' back when we turn out the light
Let's pretend we're strangers for the night
Let me be your stranger tonight, let me be your stranger tonight
