even in our darkest hour there will be a power struggle and blame on somebody well don't you see the needy child can't you feel your heart awhile and lay down your greed but the only thing you can think to say is I thought I'd see that city fair like I thought you were the only one I thought you were the pretty one I thought you'd be there oh

and this is how my story goes you're the only one who knows it the only one who knows me now I don't want to take the time that it's gonna take to find someone new to tell it to besides the only thing I can think to say is I never saw that city fair and I am not the only one lord knows I'm not the pretty one you're not there

well there are things I thought I knew what hard rain and wind can do they can wipe away a town but that's something that I never thought of I just lived my life so high up away from the ground and now the only thing I can think to say is that you are like that city fair

I thought you were the only one

I thought you were the pretty one I thought you'd always be there
oh

cuz even in our darkest hour there will be a power struggle and blame on somebody
blame on somebody
