Step outside and raise your hand
Set your mind to see where I stand
And show me my broken home

I'll sell my heart, I see no use
I can't explain the things I do
It's all I've ever known
So show me my broken home

There's blood on my sleeve
My knees are weak trying
So preach on you Jesus freaks
I'm inspired
And now that I'm alone
I ain't so tired

When did my life start to mean
Starving on a sucker's dream?
It's all I've ever known
So show me my broken home

There's blood on my sleeve
My knees are weak trying
So preach on you Jesus freaks
I'm inspired
And now that I'm alone
I ain't so tired

Oh tell me can you hear me now?
Tell me are you alright?
Is there anybody out there?
Smokin' mirrors in the moonlight
I'm alone but I'm only growing old

There's blood on my sleeve
My knees are weak trying
So preach on you Jesus freaks
I'm inspired
And now that I'm alone
I ain't so tired
