Woke up today and things have changed
The man I've become just ain't the same
Wanted to run but there's just no where to go
Livin in a dreamworld, praying that it don't show.

Cause who I am
Is who you want me to be
But I'm havin a hard time findin me
So take my hand darling
Wont you let me go
Got to do this by myself
That's one thing i know

Livin my life on low fuel
Tellin myself that im a damn fool
All of my friends up in Fort Worth tell me how im brave
Little do you know i almost lost you yesterday

Cause who I am
Is who you want me to be
But I'm havin a hard time findin me
So take my hand darling
Wont you let me go
Got to do this by myself
That's one thing i know

I got the demons on my trail
Crazy and messed up
No one else can tell

Cause who I am
Is who you want me to be
But I'm havin a hard time findin me
So take my hand darling
Wont you let me go
Got to do this by myself
That's one thing i know

Gotta do this all alone that's one think I know
