in a passion to succeed. life can make us promises and guarantees. of all the good things God can do, i will never forget the day he gave me you. i wanna thank u for the times. that u were there when i was scared. so i could finally shine (so i could finally shine)

Chorus

You were the one who helped me make it through.
showing me all the things that i could do. keeping me strong down the road so long. believing in me even when i was wrong. i know i won when u taught me pride. to never give up and look deep inside to realize my dreams. cuz u were on my side (u were on my side, yeah)

there were many times i failed. but u never let down on me. so i prevailed. so much im thankful for. guided me to push through that door. and whenever i lost my faith. u picked me up and made me feel like there was nothing i couldn't face. there was nothing i couldn't face.

Chorus

You were the one who helped me make it through.
showing me all the things that i could do. keeping me strong down the road so long. believing in me even when i was wrong. i know i won when u taught me pride. to never give up and look deep inside to realize my dreams. cuz u were on my side (oh)

your faith in me makes me see (your faith in me makes me see). your faith in me makes me breathe (your faith in me makes me breathe). your faith in me makes me be (makes me be all i can be). if u know what compares. then u know how much i care about u tooooooooo...

Chorus

You were the one who helped me make it through.
showing me all the things that i could do. keeping me strong down the road so long. believing in me even

when i was wrong. i know i won when u taught me pride.
to never give up and look deep inside to realize my dreams. cuz u were on my side

Chorus

You were the one who helped me make it through.
showing me all the things that i could do. keeping me strong down the road so long. believing in me even when i was wrong. i know i won when u taught me pride.
to never give up and look deep inside to realize my dreams. cuz u were on my side (yeahi, yeahi, yeah)

Taught me to confide...keeping me in stride...someone to be beside...u never let me hide...u were on my siiiiiiide.....
