

Randy Stonehill "Turning Thirty"

Visit "Turning Thirty" on MotoLyrics.com

I've got a house down by the ocean
The rent is not too high
And I love to watch the ships come in
And hear the seagulls cry

And lately I've been taking stock
Of all that I've been through
Oh, tomorrow is my birthday
Feels funny but it's true, I'm turning thirty

Now I've got a wife who really loves me
She makes my life so sweet
And a little baby daughter
Who plays games around my feet

And my world is very different
From lost lazy bachelor years
But if I had the chance to go back
I'd rather stay right here, turning thirty, I'm turning thirty

And I have friends who care about me
They're the best I've ever had
And they always stood behind me
Whenever times got bad

And I love to play my music
Though the road can be at trial
But every time I walk on stage
It's worth each dusty mile, turning thirty

Yeah now

Well, now thirty ain't like fifteen
And it's not like twenty-five
My back's a little stiff
And there're some lines around my eyes

But I've still got my energy
And I've got most of my hair
And I'm not too old to rock 'n roll
And I'm not really scared of turning thirty, yeah yeah

Oh, the eighties look like tough times
The world is turning sour
So I'll keep on serving Jesus
And await the final hour

And though I've often failed Him
In these thirty rocky years
His mercy brought me this far
And his love has dried my years, I'm turning thirty
(I'll treasure these years)

I'm turning thirty, that's alright
(I'll treasure these years)
Turning thirty, yeah
(I'll treasure these years)
I'm turning thirty, yeah yeah yeah

Visit Randy Stonehill page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.