And I don't believe in hiding the people and the things in my past And I know you don't want to hear me say I wish that we were together again
We just couldn't make it work on paper I'll never know why but you never knew me except for my name Maybe you think that I have changed but nothing can change my mind

Those changes of your own that you held so dear, to me were just a waste of time Making believe we know it all without enough of an understanding going on All of the words won't change your mind 'Cause they're lost when you put the letter back in the drawer
If I stood before you now, you couldn't put me away anymore Letters don't count
Letters don't, letters don't count
Letters, letters don't, letters don't count
