Hmmm, yeah, yeah!
You think I almost gave a damn about you, baby
You stay on my mind all the time
Had me thinking about settling down with you
And stressing how I feel inside!
I knew something wasn't right, cause I found some things
And loving want the same, hey
I could feel it in my veins
And none like you, my senses never lie to me, babe
Cause none will bring us back, again!

Chorus:

The boat has left the bay
The ship has sailed away
You had the chance to keep it straight
(Chance to keep it straight)
But instead you chose to play
Your boat has left the bay
(The boat has left the bay)
The ship has sailed from shore
You had the chance to something more, oh
But you let it slip way!

I was this close to making big plans with you
A future of the things to do
...everything I love,
Girl, I want it to (girl, everything)
But something told me "stop!"
I'm glad I listened
I didn't know all these times you were cheating, baby
Cause I don't wanna see,
I was trying to believe it
I was thinking maybe if we got closer
Maybe I could change some things, but girl
I can't stop the rain!

Chorus:

The boat has left the bay
The ship has sailed away
(The ship has sailed away)

Oh, no need for "I'm sorry!"
Girl you had your chance, should have made it last
Now I'm going away and you're begging "Stay!"
Oh, no need for "I'm sorry!"
Girl you had your chance, should have made it last
Now I'm going away and you're begging "Stay!"

Chorus:

The boat has left the bay
(The boat has left the away)
The ship has sailed away
(The ship has sailed away)
You had the chance to keep it straight
(You had your chance to keep it straight)
But instead you chose to play
(Instead you chose to play)
Your boat has left the bay
(You had the chance to be my baby)
The ship has sailed from shore
(I was thinking we could have some babies)
You had the chance to something more, hey
But you let it slip way!
Uh, uh, hey!
The boat has left the bay
The ship has sailed away
You had the chance to keep it straight
But instead you chose to play
Your boat has left the bay, oh, oh
Your ship has sailed from shore
You had the chance to something more
But you let it slip way!
