Johnny Tulloch agus Mary
agus Iain Alex Rory Angus Hector, Mary Sarah,
Archie Dan, Alex Joe
Little Johnny Dougal agus
Theresa Duncan Peter All piled in a wagon for a dance in Glencoe Well they barrelled down
the back roads
By the farmhouse and the pasture
They barrelled down the back roads
Where the bochans wouldn't go Sipped a little dealach just to get the diddle flowing Sang a gaelic song there was no radio
When they got to the dance
They could hear the fiddle playing
They could see the couples swaying
Through a window by the door Shovelled out a nickel to a man behind the wicket
Then heard the prompter holler
