(Cookie Rankin & Gordie Sampson)

Is this my imagination
Are you the real thing
A sordid preoccupation
Or a decent human being
Just when you think you have fallen
There's a road up ahead
Have I found my vocation
Could you be heaven sent
A solid foundation
A sin I'm yet to repent
Just when you think you have fallen
There's a shining light instead
Maybe you're right I could be wrong
One and two hearts will break
Two at a time will mend
Maybe it all comes 'round again
Maybe you're right I could be wrong
Maybe you're an ocean
That reaches every shore
A teacher of devotion
Goin' from door to door
Just when you think you have fallen
There's a shining light instead

Maybe you're right I could be wrong
One and two hearts will break
Two at a time will mend
Maybe it all comes 'round again
Maybe you're right I could be wrong
One or two hearts will break
Two at a time will mend
Maybe it all comes 'round again
Are you an infatuation
That comes from far beyond
A distant relation
To things left undone
Just when you think you have fallen
There's a shining light instead
Maybe you're right I could be wrong
One and two hearts will break

Two at a time will mend
Maybe it all comes 'round again
One and two hearts will break
Two at a time will mend
Maybe it all comes 'round again
Maybe you're right I could be wrong
Just maybe
Maybe you're right I could be wrong
