Love, your boat's lost at sea
I stand on the shore
In the warm summer eve
Waiting for you, waiting for you
To come home to me
Love, it's sometimes a shame
I walk through the field
In the cold autumn rain
Longing to hear, longing to hear
You call out my name
Fire on the water
And smoke in the sky
I'll leave the lamp burning
In case you drop by
Time slips slowly away
I stand in the window
Well they all think I'm crazy
For waiting for you, for waiting for you
For waiting...
To come home to me
Fire on the water
And smoke in the sky
I'll leave the lamp burning
In case you drop by
Love, I live in a dream
Night after night, day after day
Still can't believe, still can't believe
Your boat's lost at sea
Your boat's lost at sea
Your boat's lost at sea
I'll leave the lamp burning
Your boat's lost at sea
I been livin' on
Livin' on, livin' on the edge
My boat's lost at sea
Your boat's lost at sea.
