Verse

I'm thinking about the things she said
I just can't get them out of my head
The sun is shining on the floor
It's time to break up close the door

Chorus

It's over now it's way to late
Those happy times have turned to hate
The tears I've shed over the things she said

Verse

Her picture's hanging on the wall
I can not walk begin to crawl
The pain I feel inside of me
'Cause I let you go and set you free

Chorus

It's over now its way to late
Those happy times have turned to hate
The tears I've shed over the things she said
The things she said

Chorus

It's over now it's way to late
Those happy times have turned to hate
The tears I've shed over the things she said
The things she said
It's over now it's way to late
Those happy times have turned to hate
The tears I've shed over the things she said
The things she said

Things she said

Oh

So hard so wrong

To me I know it's hard to say
