The wolves are at your door
Dressed like sheep
Trying hard to hide the blood
To hide the blood from the crowd

They are trying to sell
Slavery as a dream to chase
Driven by fear, consumer wars
No way to see their hoax

They are listening, they are watching
They wanna know what we do
They are faking our freedom
Hoping we believe it's true

The world is full of snakes
Whispering in your ear
A stream of seducing words
From a cloven tongue

They are trying to sell
Slavery as a dream to chase
Driven by fear, consumer wars
No way to see their hoax

Fences at the border
Dividing the world in two
Have-nots feed the have-lots
Obeying the market rules

The rats are spreading plague
No stopping the disease
Their rotten dirty bite
Infecting the whole world

They are trying to sell
Slavery as a dream to chase
Driven by fear, consumer wars
